Teaching Adversarial Thinking for Cybersecurity (1:00 - 1:50 pm EST)

Dreams Deferred: The Cost of Cybersecurity Education (2:00 – 2:50 pm EST)

Mark your calendar and come join us for CAE Forum! CAE Forum is a live, real-time, online, academic forum where members of the CAE community give non-technical presentations on topics of value to the CAE community. CAE Forum is about sharing your ideas, knowledge, and expertise to empower and strengthen our community. It's that simple. CAE Forum presentations are normally held on the first Wednesday of each month during the Fall and Spring semesters.

PRESENTATION #1

Title/Topic: Teaching Adversarial Thinking for Cybersecurity

Time: 1:00 - 1:50 pm EST

Location: <https://caecommunity.zoom.us/j/83488759886>

Just log in as "Guest" and enter your name. No password required.

Audience: Students, Professors, Govt.

Presenter(s): Dr. Seth Hamman, Cedarville University

Description: We all know that adversarial thinking is important for cybersecurity, but what is it and how do you teach it to students? This forum will explore the role of adversarial thinking in cybersecurity education, its definition, and an approach to teaching it using game theory.

PRESENTATION #2

Title/Topic: Dreams Deferred: The Cost of Cybersecurity Education

Time: 2:00 - 2:50 pm EST

Location: <https://caecommunity.zoom.us/j/83488759886>

Just log in as "Guest" and enter your name. No password required.

Audience: Students, Professors, Govt.

Presenter(s): Jasmine Jackson, City University of Seattle

Description: With the current initiative to fill cybersecurity jobs, there is still a disconnect on the best ways to train and retain cybersecurity workers. This presentation will explore the nuances of cybersecurity education, the exclusion of marginalized populations in cybersecurity education, and the associated cost of this exclusion to the cybersecurity pipeline.

A recording of the live presentation will be available following the pre of the presentation at:
